A Frog In The Bog

A Frog in the Bog is a great book for young children. It follows a Frog who can't quite get enough to eat. He searches the bog to find everything he can eat. He eats worms, bugs, and other critters you would find in a bog. When the Frog is almost completely full and continuing to grow from all of the bugs he has eaten he is met with a surprise.

A Frog in the Bog by Karma Wilson - Goodreads

There's a small green frog on a half-sunk log in the middle of the bog. He eats one tick, two fleas, three flies, four slugs, and five snails. And the frog gets a whole lot bigger. Then a hungry gator shows up, ready to eat the big fat frog. The frog opens his mouth wide to scream and out comes everything he's eaten!

Frogs feed on slugs, insects, worms, spiders and similar prey, but do not predate aquatic organisms. In winter frogs hide in frost-free refuges, under tree stumps, in stacks of turf, or in rock piles where they enter torpor until the following spring. Frog Profile Food: Slugs, worms, flies and other insects. The frog's long sticky tongue is attached to the front part of the mouth, so that it can flick out to catch food.

The bog itself is a carnival of color where harlequin fleas romp among snails with candy-striped shells. The story, about a gluttonous frog and the creatures that wind up in his belly, is witty and entertaining throughout. The ending has a cute surprise and a happy resolution for all.

From the bestselling author of "Bear Snores On" comes this hilariously illustrated story that teaches young readers the concept of counting from one to five and back again. Full color.

Features animals, insects, and plants in a bog.

Take a peek into an environment loaded with frogs, bugs, birds, and more. Budding naturalists can find bogs all over--maybe even in their own neighborhoods. A handy field guide in the back helps young readers identify the plants and animals illustrated throughout the book.

It's the frog on a jet-rocket log versus the dog on the jet-rocket cog! Who will win the race around the bog? A rhyming story of hijinks and hilarity that will delight Andy fans, especially beginner readers, accompanied by Terry Denton's energetically comic illustrations. This story first appeared in The Cat on the Mat is Flat, which featured a collection of short stories. The original black and white illustrations are now in colour, and the story has been redesigned in a larger format.

Ten polliwogs swim in a muddy bog, until one by one, the polliwogs turn into frogs during a rainstorm.

Text and color illustrations introduce frogs and their vital role in environmental balance in places all over the world.

A lovable, funny rhyming tale about a frog who leaves his bog. He makes a new friend on a farm where, despite being different, he is accepted and proves helpful. Enjoy 32 fun loving, colorful illustrations in this children's picture book.

When two small sisters go fishing to the magic pond, they find something much better than a frog or a newt. They find a bog baby. Small and blue with wings like a dragon, the girls decide to make him their secret. I won't tell if you won't. But the bog baby is a wild thing, and when he becomes poorly, the girls decide they must tell their mum. And she tells them the greatest lesson, if you really love something, you have to let it go.
