Grade 4 ELA Module 4. In this module, students will read, write, and speak about the topic of voting rights and responsibilities. In the first two units, students will read informational texts that focus on the women's suffrage movement and the leadership of New Yorker Susan B. Anthony. Specifically, they will read firsthand and secondhand accounts of her arrest and trial for voting in a time when women were outlawed from doing so.

- [Narrator] One of the best examples of how transformative Expeditionary Learning can be is King Middle School in Portland, Maine. At King, over 1/4 of the students are foreign born and speak 29 languages, yet students consistently exceed state and district averages at every grade level and in every subject.
